

Recapturing Youth for Success in Life and work
Presented by Tim Cimbura

Dear Event Planner:

The presentation that I would give to your group is entitled "Child at Heart". Audiences are moved by my narrative style, information, and entertainment. In feedback forms, people have commented on the influence this message has had in changing their perspective and finding greater purpose and satisfaction in life, family, and work.

Being a child at heart is not being child-ish. It is a way of living that affects all areas of life in a positive way by bringing back the good things we naturally had as kids. Here are the main points I share with audiences:

1. Use your imagination
2. Be quick to laugh
3. Experience things for the first time
4. Live in the present
5. Look up for perspective
6. Believe the impossible is possible
7. Be daring

I look forward to working with you to make your event a success. For more info about my programs and background see <http://www.ChildAtHeart.com>

Sincerely,

Tim was awarded Member of the Year 2007 of the Minnesota National Speaker Association for his contributions and expertise.
